The farmers are rejoicing in the fine erop of garnered hay and the large corn brop, which is being shucked and giving amployment to many old men, women ant visit of a few oars to many high place.

Mr. and Mrs. Hood, of Bullimore, and Miss Buford, of Richmond, are with the Misses Dabney.

Miss Clair Stanly and friends, of Great Barrington, and Miss Leavett, also of Great Barrington, Mass., are at "Hampshire," guests of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Dabney.

to their homes. I Mrs. A. A. Blow are in Denver, Col. Mr. St. George Bryon has returned to Mrs. Carter Cutlett is visiting her fath.

To Mr. Heber Nelson, at "The Cedars," ear Richmond.

mear Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Meredith, after a visit to the former's old home, "Wilson's Creek," have returned to Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Martha Vardergrift, who has been visiting Mrs. Joseph Bryan, is now in Petersburg.

LEXINGTON PERSONALS

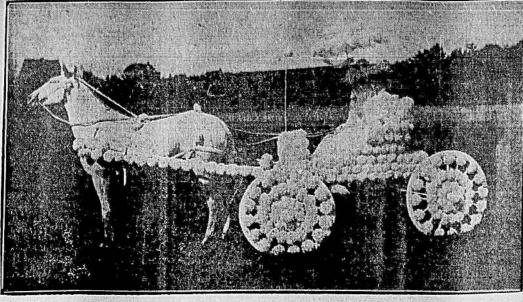

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, VA., October 28.—Mr. Wallace C. Varner, city engineer of Berkely Va., who is in Lexington, visiting his father, Mr. C. V. Varner, has been

Oth.

Lee-Jackson Camp of Confederate Veterans, of Lexington, was represented at the Grand Camp meeting at Petersburg this meet by Attorney-General William A. Anderson and Veterans John T. Dunlod and Harry E. Moore. Anong the others in attendance were Veterans David E. Moore, Samuel Floyd and Edward Brogan, of Lexington; also Jefferson Shields, the well known colored veteran. rans, of Lexington, was represented at the Grand Camp meeting at Petersburg this meet by Attorney-General William A Anderson and Veterans John T. Dunlod and Harry E. Moore. Among the others in attendance were Veterans David E. Moore, Samuel Floyd and Edward Brogan, of Lexington; also Jefferson Shields, the well known colored veteran.

Mr. William C. Hattan, who for the past year has been connected with Western Maryland Railroad as an engineer

PRIZEWINNER IN FLORAL PARADE.

Miss Belle Tyler, daughter of ex-Governor Tyler, driving with Mr. Hugh McGrann, in the floral parade at Radford during the great District Fair last week. Miss Tyler won first prize over a large number of handsome turnouts. Her horse was a beautiful snow-white creature, with glided hoofs. The decorations were in white carnations, and the lines and harness pure white. Miss Tyler wore a dainty costume of white, and her escort, Mr. McGrann, a white navy suit. The turnout was pronounced more beautiful than the prize-winner in the Richmond carnival floral parade by a number of persons who witheased bothe parades.

of construction, with headquarters at Hancock, Md., is visiting his father, Captain Mark Hattan, of Korr's Creek. After his visit to Rockbridge, Mr. Hattan will go to Bristol, Tenn., where he has accepted a position with the Virginia and Southwestern Rallroad.

Mr. William E. Christian, of Atlanta, Ga., assistant general passenger agent of the Scabbard Air Line Rallroad, spent several days in Lexington this week visiting his son, Cadet Thomas Jackson Christian, who is a matriculate at the Virginia Military Institute. Mr. Christian married the only daughter of General Stonewall Jackson, whose remains are buried in the Lexington Cemetery.

Mr. William A. Irvine, of Richmond, spent several days here this week visiting friends. He was born and reared in Lexington, and has many friends in this community.

· ITEMS FROM AFTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AFTON, VA., October 28.—Mr. and Mrs.
Fred W. Scott and Mr. G. Hunt, of Richmond, were visitors at the "Royal Orchard" this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Scott MacGregor, of Pitts-Mr. MacGregor's old home, near Green-

Mr. MacGregor's old home, near Greenfield.

Miss Rusha Goodloe is the guest of Mrs. W. Balley Saunders, in Richmond.

Miss Estelle Lipscomb is visiting relatives in Charlottesvile.

Miss Martha Weisiger, of "Highland Lodge" has returned home from a longthy stay in Richmond.

Miss Mary Slade, of Texas, has returned home after spending several months at "Highland Lodge."

Mr. L. Frieder of twachburg, purchased the "Morris" place this week, and will open up a poultry farm.

Mr. Benton Goodloe, of Washington, spent this week at his old home, "Greenfield."

Mr. Charles Martin, of Greenfield, spent

Society in Fredericksburg

FREDERICKSBURG. VA., Octobe 28.-The visit of the delegates to the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church here this week, has been enjoyed in a social way and many homes in the city were brightened by the presence of dele-gates. It was a source of general regret that the weather was inclement during both days of the convention. This, how-over, while a disappointment, did not prevent the delegates from enjoying their sofourn here.

prevent the delegates from enjoying their sojourn here.

The pupils of the music department of Fredericksburg College gave a recital in College Hall Friday night under the direction of Professor F. A. Franklin and Miss Payne, the vocal teacher. A large audience was present and all the numbers were enjoyed and heartily applauded. The pupils evidenced excellent training and progress in their work and the programme was made even more attractive by the assistance of the college orchestra and by the vocal selections by Miss Payne.

with the series of the series of the series of the friends a few evenings ago at Bridge, in honor of Mrs. J. B. McCelland, of Clarendon, Texas. Elegant refreshments were served.

Preshments were served.

Dr. J. H. French, of New York, who speny several days here this week, meeting his friends and enjoying fishing has returned home.

Mrs. J. P. Gammon is visiting friends

Mrs. J. P. Gammon is visiting friends in Richmond.
Mr. W. P. Tallaferro and bride. of Richmond, who were guests this week of Mr. J. P. Rowe and family, have returned home.
Mrs. J. B. McCelland, of Clarendon. Texas, who has been visiting her sisters. Mrs. A. T. Embrey and Mrs. W. D. Carter, has returned to her home.
Rev. H. M. B. Jones and Mrs. Jones, of Hanover county, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, parents of Mr. Jones, in spotsylvania.

in spotsylvania.

Mrs. T. R. B. Wright, of Tappahannock, was a visitor here this week and iguest of Mrs. W. D. Carter, Miss Lucy Brockenbrough who has been visiting relatives here and in this section for some time, has returned to her home in Waco, Texas.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTE, Oct. 28.—The social event of the week was the "coming out" reception Tuesday afternoon given by Simmons Jones in honor of he daughter, Miss Stuart Jones. casion marked Miss Jones' formal en-trance into the social world and was trance into the social world and was in all respects a brilliant affair. Miss Jones was gowned in a Parisian creation of white chiffon and carried an armful of American Beauty roses. Mrs. Simmons Jones and Miss Louise Jones assisted in receiving. The music was furnished by the Richardson Orchestra. Miss Jones is a young woman of distinguished lineage and charming personality.

sonality.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. H. L. Adams charmingly entertained at euche in compliment to Miss Carrie Marshall Erown, who is soon to become a bride. The first prize was won by Miss Alida Oliver, the consolation by Miss Katherine Jordan and the guest of honor was given the visitor's prize. The guests were: Misses Carrie Marshall and Nancy Brown, Norma Van Landingham, Dora Allen Sater, Lilly Rhyne, Lucy Oates, Anna Hutchinson, Annie Parks, Selana Hutchinson, Georgie Lowe, Johnsie Dickson, Sara Hargrave, Agnes and Grace King, Woodfin Chambers, Beesle Fitzsimmons, Sara and Lila Kelley, Margaret Thurmond, Alida Oliver, Louise Wadsworth, Mary Armand, Bettie and Lilly Nash, and Rebekah Chambers. Miss Mary Irwin was the charming hostess at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of the attendants at the Moore-McCarty wedding, which took place Wednesday evening. The guests were: Miss Fanny Lardner Moore, Coulse Wadsworth, Josephine Osborne, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Mr. Daniel McCarty, Dr. Charles McCarty, J. O. Walker and J. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. H. L. The first prize was won by Miss Katherine Jordan and the guest of honor was given the visitor's prize. The guests were: Misses Carrie Marshall and Nancy Brown, Norma Wan Landingstan, Nancy Brown, Nancy Mary Armand, Bettle and Greec King, Woodfin Chambers, Bessie Fitzsimmon, Sara and Lills Kelley, Marragaret Thurmond, Allda Oliver, Louise Wadsworth, Mary Armand, Bettle and Lilly Nash, and Rebekah Chambers.

Miss Mary Irwin was the charming hostess at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of the attendants at the Money Mary Irwin was the charming hostess at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of the attendants at the Money Mary Irwin was the charming hostess at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of the attendants at the Money Mary Irwin was the charming hostess at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mora. Charles McCarty, J. O. Walker and J. J. Smith, Mr. Danlel McCarty, Dr. Charles McCarty, J. O. Walker and J. L. Humbert.

Mrs. Ell Steele entertained Wednesday evening at a reception in honor of Mrs. Abram Bieele. Those who as sisted in receiving were: D. P. Hutchholm, J. B. Witherspoon, J. B. Khinev, W. H. Twilty, Misses Massel tucheston, Johnson, Annie Carlotton, Annie and Ellizaban, Johnson, Annie Carty, which look place Wednesday evening at 7:39 o'clock of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

PEOPLE IN CAROLINE (Special to The Times-Dispatch), Mrs. Wol. Basham McNeil, of Baltimore, is stepting at the Lawn Hotel.

Mrs. Wolls, Guest, A. Occ. 2s.—Miss Gillie Carey, of Helmond, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. And Misses Gillie Carey, of Helmond, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. And Misses Gillie Carey, of Helmond, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. And Misses Gillie Carey, of Helmond, is spending this week with union of the Confederate Soldiers in Petersburg this week.

Huntsmen are beginning to take out hunting licenses, but from the reports, game is quite scarce. There is a general complaint among the people who hunt, of dogs running at large during the closed season, and it is hoped that the Game Association of Virginia will get a law passed this winter requiring parties who own dogs to either keen them parties who own dogs to either keep then up or muzzled during the closed season up or muzzled during the closed season as they destroy considerably more game than is killed by the huntsmen.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, FARMLILE, VA., Oct. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. J.
L. Jarman entertained the members of the faculty and a few other friends at a delightful reception Friday evening,
October 20th, from eight to eleven o'clock.
No more fitting scene could have been found for such a happy event than their attractive home, richly decorated and ablaze with light leviting to good and ablaze with light, inviting to good cheer.

Mrs. Jarman, winning and gracious in her duties as hostess, was assisted by Mrs. R. Baxter Tuggle, who, in a bower of glowing autumn leaves, gracefully served a delicious fruit punch. Charming young ladies were enlisted, too, to further the enjoyment of the guests. Misses Lizzie Cochran, Elizabeth Richardson, Edith Duvall, Nanni-Nicholson and Alice Grubbs, by their daintiness added to the flavor of the tempting ices received from their hands By unanimous request, Mr. and Mrs Jarman consented to give additional pleasure to their-friends by singing a beautiful duet, "I live and love thee." Miss Alleen Andrews contributed several enjoyable plane numbers.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. J.

F. Messenger, Mrs. Jane K. Cochran, Miss Estelle Smithey, Miss Minle V. Rice, Miss Margaret W. Hallburton, Miss Marie Whiting, Miss Martha W. Coulling, Miss Mary D. Pierce, Miss Mary V. Blandy, Mr. J. Chester Mattoon, Miss Lilia London, Mr. James Luckin Bugg, Miss Elsie Gwyn, Miss Laura K. Hills, Miss Vennie Cox, Miss Carrie Sutherlin, Mr. J. Taylor Thompson, Miss Folose Harrison, Mr. Archer Wade, Miss Annie Thraves, Miss Alice Dugger, Mr. Vernon D. Venable, Miss Lulie G. Winston, Miss Jennie M. Tabb, Miss Helen Vernon D. Venable, Miss Lulie G. Winston, Miss Jennie M. Tabb, Miss Helen M. Coale, Miss Mary Clay Hiner, Miss Lettia M. Snow, Mr. W. B. Agnew, Miss Helen Blackiston, Miss Natalie Lancaster, Miss Fannie W. Dunn, Miss Mary Woodruff, Miss Lula O. Andrews and Miss Allean Andrews.

on parting with their genial president and his charming wife, that "faculty meetings" might always be as delightful as that evening had been.

Miss Ruth Clendening, a graduate of June, 1903, was married on October 19th, the charms in Millsham.

at her home in Hillsboro, to Mr. Clay-ton D. Gaver, of Washington, ton D. Gaver. Miss Alma T

Miss Alma Thraves, of Belona, speni last week with her sisters, Misses Annie and Mattie Thraves.

SOCIETY AT WILMINGTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., October 28.—A dearth of social affairs marked the closing week of October for Wilmington, though society folks managed to keep happily and merrily on the go by means of small entertainments. Some of the

What Suplphur Does

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MALVERN HILL, VA., October 28.—A number of gentlemen in this neighborhood

Why Do We Save You Money?

The reason is plain-buying for "cash" and selling for "cash," the interest on a credit outlay is saved. Our customers fully appreciate the wonderful advantages of our "cash system." You would do well to try it yourself. Remember the motto-

CASH—That's Why Nothing at Full Price.

Novelty Taffetas in small checks and hair-line stripes; a special 48c bargain; 69c value for....... Lining Satin—Just think, it is guaranteed to last two seasons, 36 inches wide. In black, white and castor; bought to sell for $1.25; Monday 950 for Dress Goods.

These opportunities will not last long, as they contain all the popular fabrics in handsome effects, and will be gone early.

Scotch Plaids, double widths; 25c Habit Cloth, double widths: 39C

Chaviots, 42 inches wide, black 48C and colors; special value,...... New Panamas in novelty stripes and figures; this would be cheap at $1.25, but for Monday the price 75c is Fine Broadcloth, in all the popular colorings, shows quality and will not get rough when sponged. Why have it charged at $1.25, when your 980 eash will buy it for

Panama Cloth, black only, 56 inches wide, just one piece left, 18 pieces sold for $1.25; this piece 98C

Bedford Cord, silk stripe, several patterns in cream color only; displayed on first floor, near the 23c front, only

Velvetine for Sults, all colors; a special bargain, 59e value; Mon- 48C day, price

Ribbons and Belts.

A complete stock of Ribbons will always be found on the right-hand side of the main entrance; just step inside and see the handsomest effects in the city. Anything you want in that line at a price just below the lowest. "Cash, that's why."

Fine Taffeta and Satin, 60c a 80c, in every shade; the regular 25c value for 19c.

Patent Leather Belts-It may be you have looked elsewhere, and they were a little too large, or some other rea-son. Perhaps the price was a little more than they were worth. Well, you will be suited in every way with ours. The stock is entirely complete. Hand Bags.

Ladies' Neckwear.

This handsome assortment includes advise you to have a look, anyhow. The prices are reasonable—from 25c Embroidery Special.

This will be one of the special features of Monday's offerings. Beautiful Embroideries, 17 inches wide, This is a bargain at 35c; special price, 25c.

Dress Nets.

Gloves.

Every woman wants a pretty hand; if her hand is naturedly attractive her gloves should fit; if her hand is not pretty a nice glove will hide the defects. We pride ourselves on our glove department.

"A good fit that won't split." A special lot new Kid Gloves, 590

Fall Underwear.

Now, don't put it off from day to day and think it will be warm until December. The time has come when a change may be expected. We can supply your wants, all grades and sizes. Remember, the prices are very low, and it will pay you to get your wants supplied here.

get a fit if you are in time; 25c 19c

Misses' Jersey Ribbed Pants and Vests; a special bargain; 25c 19c

Linen Specials.

Huck Crash, 18 inches wide: 934c

Ready-to-Wear Garments.

Here's a list of a few of the exceptional values we are offering in our Ladies' Suit and Clouk Department. You will find here everything to suit you in the way of suits, with long coats and short coats, rain coats and covert coats, clouks, skirts, shirt waists and extra offerings in furs. Walking skirts walsts and extra offerings in furs.

Walking Skirts—a new gray one, trimmed with buttons, 3 gores; $2.98 regular price $4.50, to-morrow, $2.98.

A New Panama Walking Skirt, in gray, blue and black; $5.50 $4.98 value for.

A new Skirt in a new shade of gray, box and knife pleats; former $6.98 price $8.00, for.

A New Long Coat Butt all wool.

A New Long Coat Suit, all wool cheviot coat, 47 inches length, handsomely inflored; would be cheep at $12.50; you can wear it $9.98

Empire Suit, with extra long coat; this shows the tallor's art at its best; trimmed with sik braid, in blue, black and gray; credit value $25.00, $19.00

Special Covert Coat.

Extra Long Covert Coat; $6.98

Empire Coat, very long and stylish, with new sleeves, in black and castor; $12.50 value, $10.98

What the particular mother is looking for in Misses' and Children's Ready-to-Wear Garments will be found on our second floor. Special attention was given to this department, and our buyer was able to put them here at real bargain prices, ranging $2.98

Kimonas and Bressing Saves

Kimonas and Dressing Gowns. A special lot that will be sure to please you; you can find both long and short ones; special 98C Elderdown Dressing Sacques, red gray and pink; on the second 98c floor; $1.25 kind, for......

Comfortable Blankets.

Make your nights peaceful and happy; a good, warm blanket will help. White Wool Blankets, double bed

Heavy Twill Red Flannel, 35c, 25C Slikeline, 36 inches wide; 160 5C

Six Experienced Salespeople Wanted at Once.

E. T. Faulkner Company,

Broad and First Streets

most select of society found pleasure at most select of society of the Jonese's the handsome winter rendezvous of Mr. Pembroke Jones. Some of the Jonese's most intimate friends were entertained at Airlee for a few days, while the Jonese's themselves looked over the handsome place, with its extensive grounds, with an eye for further costly improvements.

Mrs. Wallace Carmichael, who was the

Mrs. Wallace Carmichael, who was the guest of Mrs, Jones at Newport, returned with the Jones party, but Miss Hanna Bolles, who was a co-visitor with Mrs. Carmichael, went from Newport to Mamaroneck to be the guest of Mrs. H. M. Flagler.

The social event of next week will really be a combination one, as the L'Ariose German Club will give its openining dance in honor of the bridal party of the Armstrong-Crow nuprials. The wedding will take place Tuesday afternoon; and the dance, which will be be brilliant one, will transpire at night. The atternoon; and the dance, which will be a brilliant one, will transpire at night. The contracting parties will be Miss Olive Armstrong, the eldest daughter of Mr. John S. Armstrong, president of the Atlantic National Bank, this city, and Mr. George D. Crow. Both young people stand high

S. Armstrong, president of the Atlantic National Bank, this city, and Mr. George D. Crow. Both young people stand Migh in social circles, and the bride-elect is of the Armstrongs of Virginia. The groom-elect comes from an old Cape Fear family, and ig a grandson of the late. Hon. George Davis, of Jefferson Davis's cabinet.

Another marriage of prominence appointed for next week is that of Miss Minnie Perdew and Mr. Levi McMillan.

A number of Wilmington people are interested in a marriage which takes place in Richmond week after next. It will be the wedding of Miss Bivvie Wilder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durant H. Wilder, to Colonel John Boykin Madden, the event being celebrated Tuesday, November 7th, a. Grove Avenue Baptist Church. The bride-elect is a relative of the Gilberts, the Barneses and the Benders, of this city.

Aside from the brilliant Masonic bazaar to take place in a fortnight, the Ladies' Auxillary of the Young Men's Christian Association will present a "Carnival of Nations" for several nights, commencing December 6th.

The local acrie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles is preparing to make a pilgrimage to Norfolk, Va., Thanksgiving Day. Upon that occasion the Eagles willi run an excursion to the point noted in order to take in the Carolina-Virginia foot-ball game, and also to visit the brethren of the Norfolk aerie.

The Wilmington Lodge of Elks the past week presented a social session in the way of a luscious barbeeue, and also gave an exciting and hotly contested pool tournament. The lodge now has plans afoot for a big benefit minstrel performance to be given between and the Yuleide season.

the Yuletide senson.

CHARLES CITY NOTES

number of gentlemen in this neighborhood had a fine day for deer hunting last Monday; but, instead of bagging deer, they found good appetites, which kepit the cooks busy. They expect to have another hunt in a few days, as several deer have been seen in this neighborhood. A fine large buck, with seven prongs on each antier, swam across the "James" from "Presque Isle" to "Harden's" and disappeared in the woods a short time ago.

ders, William Hogan, Woodcock Rock, r. W. Clark and others. Miss Virginia Ruffin, of Prince George has returned to spend the winter with the family of Mr. B. R. Carter, of the family of Mr. B. R. Carter, of Shirley Mills. Mr. John Mitchell, of East Orange, N. J., lsi the guest of his cousin, Mrs. H. S. Saunders, Upper Shirley. Miss Cora Greeley, who has been visit-ing friends on Church Hill, has return-ed to her home.

ed to her home.

Mr. I. S. Eberley, of Greenwood Farm Mr. I. S. Eberley, of Greenwood Farmwent North several weeks ago to visit his sister, Mrs. Shreiner, of Lititz, Pa. Mr. Eberley was not well when he left home and has been confined to bed ever since he arrived at Lititz. The doctor pronounced his disease typhold-malarial fever and abscisses fin the head. He has had two operations performed. The last reports were favorable.

'Bessie' lis very sick, Mr. William Johnson, of Malvern Hill postoffice, has his new house under roof Miss Mary Randolph Carter's class in October 27th, at 2 P. M.

Mr. Russell Ladd, of the Pocahontas, spent a few days with hisi parents this week.

SOUTH BOSTON SOCIAL

SOUTH BOSTON SOCIAL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., Oct. 22,—Mrs. Glenn J. Hunt entertained at euchre Friday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Annie Wilkinson. The decorations were of golden rod, banks of autumn leaves, corn and roses, and the color scheme being green, red and yellow were uniquely carried out in the taily cards, refreshments and prizes. The individual creams and cakes were in the shape of corn and roses, while the taily cards were hand-painted autumn leaves. The first prize, a daintily-embroidered fancy work apron made in the shape of an autumn leaf, was proudly won by Miss Rose Watkins, who later in the afternoon presented same to the guest of honor. The "booby" was accepted by Miss Imogen Watkins, at first saily but afterwards with much enthusiasm, as she discovered she had won the key to euchre, which was a key-rack made from an car of pop-corn, tied with red ribbon.

The invited guests to participate were: Mesdames William Cunningham, R. H. Owen, R. E. Jordan, James Oleens, G. E. Fauikner, Charles Brookes, James Lipscomb, Jr., J. C. Harris, W. H. Lawson, W. I. Jordan, James Glenn, Jr., John Watkins, R. H. Edmondson, Louise Penick, J. D. Tuckor, T. E. Armstrong, J. A. Wright and J. C. Green.

Misses Lizzie Green, Jennie Singleton, Mary Bields, Ellen D. Bruce, Annie Haukins, Ruth Singleton, Camilla Dorsey, Heien W. Easley, Margaret Crawford, Mildred Edmonds, Laura Stebbins, Midred Evans, Louise Penick, Will Easley, Imoson and Rose Watkins, Pattle Eyans, Marle Hudmon and Louise Owen.

CREWE SOCIAL

deer have been seen in this neighborhood. A fine large buck, with seven prongs on each antier, swam across the "James" from "Presque isle" to "Harden's" and disappeared in the woods a short time ago.

Among the hunters were Messrs. John Mitchell, East Orange, N. J.; R. J. Simes, Sr., Pennsylvania; H. S., Santhirth of the property of the property of the property of the property of the church that evening. The beautiful home of Mrs. John Kild was through the property of the church that evening. The beautiful home of Mrs. John Kild was thrown open for the occasion, and with its lavish decorations and brilliantly is the pastor of the Baptist Church, and is greatly beloved by his people. The presents presented by his congregation are magnificent, consisting of a whole sliver ten service, handsome rock-ing chair, in fact, everyching need-ed to adorn its beautiful new pastorium they will occupy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hines will visit relatives in Rosnoke and Prince Edward

Miss Ruby Jones left for her home at Newport News, Wednesday, Miss Ruby Ramon, of Felden, visited The sick child of Mr. Patrick Davis was taken to a Norfolk hospital Thursday. Mrs. O. A. Wilson has taken her little daughter, Elizabeth, to Roanoke for Where the Quarrel Began. Wife-The papers say the King of Spain is to be married. A few days ago they were saying he was crazy.

Husband-Evidently they were right.— Houston Chronicle. Vigorous Rubbing

With Dixie Nerve and Bone Liniment

will cure Sprains, Strains and all Pains. For Neuralgia and all Rheumatic Pains it has no superior. Don't suffer, but persist in rubbing hard and long with Dixle Nerve and Bone Liniment. Large bottles, 25 cents, metal size, 15 cents

Owens & Minor Drug Co.

CANCER HOSPITAL.

We want every man and woman in the United States to know what we are doing. We are curing Cancers, Tumors and Chronic Sores without the use of the knife, and are endorsed by the Senate and Legislature of Virginia. If you are seeking a cure, come here and you will get it. We guarantee our cures.

The Kellam Cancer Hospial.

RICHMOND, VA.

'Phone 1096

S.—Gloncester, beautiful at all scasons, is peculiarly so just now with its rich fall colors which lend added adornment.

and childen. The young, stronger labor are now "go Ing by water"—that is, are systering.
From a social point of view, thoucester

From a social point of view, to success!

Is rather quiet.

Mrs. Patterson gave a golf tea this week, Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Withers, Misses Anne Page Vandergrit, Brook Byrd, Cora Dimmock, Pannie James, Mrs. Spottswood Welford, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Chiney, Mrs. Hichard Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Leamon, Messrs, Maynard Cheney and Curtis James.

Maynard Cheney and Curtis James.

Messrs, Maynard Chency and Curtis
James.

A very delightful house party gathered at Toddsbury, the homes of Mrs, William Mott, on the North River, among whom were Mrs, Kidmore and party, from Geat Neck, N. Y.; Misses Hoge I. Atkenson, of Great Neck, and Miss Vothout, of California. A pleasant feature of the occasion was a sail in Mrs, Kidmore's beautiful yacht to Old Point, and a pleasant visit of a few days to that interesting place.

Shire," guests of St. Dabuey, Miss Margaret Tabb left on Friday for Miss Margaret Tabb left on Friday for a visit to Baltimore.

Mrs. J. P. Pritchard, of Pittsburg; Miss Louise Hixon, of Richmond, and Miss Ethel Lefling, of Florida, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones, of Ditchley, have returned to their respective homes.

Mrs. Johnson, of Baltimore; Miss Agness Taliaferro, of Rapidan, and Messirs. Edward Brunno and G. Carleton, of New York, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taliaferro, of Hockly, have returned to their homes.

Fisting Mrs. Joseph Bryan, 18 now in Petersburg. Tompkins, who has been visiting friends in Glasville, left for Petersburg and the Confederate reunion.

Dr. Wm. F. Jones left on Tuesday to stiend the Medical Association in Nor-Iolk, and from there may go on to the reunion in Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury, of Chicago, are at Oak Point, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Sanders.

ing his father. Air. C. V. Varner, has been notified of his appointment by Governor Montague as one of the delegates from Virginia to, the Southern Conference of Immigration and Quarantine, to be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., November 9th and 30th.

Makes FOR YOU

A Dollar Saved is a Dolfar Made. Try Us.

standard American Granulated Sugar, per lb. 50
Arbuckle's Coffee, 141/2C	Shipstuff and Brown- $1.05
Best Elgin Butter, 27c	Bran, per hundred
Octagon Soap. 4C
per cake
Kingan's California Hams, 9c
Best Full Cream Cheese, 16c	Butchers' Lard, per 10c

	Bran, per hundred
Best Elgin Butter, 27c
Octagon Soap, 4c
Colgate's Palm Soap, 4c	Best Roe Herring, 18C
Standard brands of Flour, 32c	Duffy's Malt Whiskey, per 80c bottle
Kingan's California Hams, 9c
Best Full Cream Cheese, 16c	Butchers' Lard, per 10c
Small cans Best Tomatoes, 6c	Small cans Good Luck Pow- ders 40
arm cans best Tomatoes AF	Large cans Good Luck Pow- Qo

No. 1724 E. Main. S. MOORE'S SONS, Inc., 1724 E.MAII

Are You Thinking

where you will buy your winter's supply of COAL? Think no longer, but see as per name and address below, the very best place in many miles around to get COAL incorporating every wantable quality. We would not request your COAL orders unless we were absolutely certain of giving you exactly what you seek in burnable COAL.

FIRE CREEK LUMP POCAHONTAS LUMP POCAHONTAS LUMP at summer prices
NEW RIVER STEAM at summer prices
DOMESTIC COKE at summer prices

OAK AND PINE WOOD Long, Sawed and Kindling, in any length. Phone us.

You will find our prices right. NELSON & LADD,

Office, 1710 E: Broad St.